Article 5: Scope of the work

The Client must ensure that all licences, exemptions and other declarations that are necessary to carry out the work are obtained in due time. The Client is obliged to send the Contractor a copy of the aforementioned documents immediately on the Contractor's request. The Client indemnifies the Contractor against any third-party claims related to the work. This also applies to the Client, if the Client does not comply with the provisions of any applicable law.

In case of non-compliance with the provisions of Articles 3.4 to 3.6, the Client agrees to immediately terminate the agreement with the Contractor, without judicial proceedings being necessary. In such a case, the Client indemnifies the Contractor against any third-party claims related to the work.

Article 6: Delivery and risk transfer

6.1. The Client must provide all data, drawings, specifications and other documents necessary for the Contractor to perform the work. These documents must be provided in a timely manner.

6.2. The Contractor will be responsible for any losses or damages to the Client caused by the Contractor's failure to comply with these terms, including the cost of any corrective work.

6.3. The Client must, to the extent possible, ensure that any work carried out on behalf of the Client is not subject to retention of title or any other similar security interest.

6.4. If the Client fails to pay the Contractor on time, the Contractor may suspend the work or terminate the agreement.

6.5. The Contractor shall be entitled to terminate the agreement with immediate effect if the Client fails to pay an invoice within 30 days of the invoice date at the latest.

6.6. The Client shall pay all costs and expenses incurred by the Contractor in connection with the work, including any costs incurred for defence against claims.

6.7. The Client shall be responsible for all taxes due on the work.

Article 7: Price changes

7.1. The Contractor may pass on to the Client an increase in costs incurred as a result of factors that occur after entering into the agreement. The Client is obliged to pay the price increase within 30 days of the increase.

7.2. If the Client fails to pay the increase in price within 30 days, the Contractor may terminate the agreement with immediate effect.

7.3. If the price change is related to a change in law, the Client is not entitled to seek compensation for any damage caused by the change in law.

7.4. The price change shall not apply until the Client agrees to it in writing.

7.5. If the Client fails to agree to the price change, the Contractor may terminate the agreement with immediate effect.
